THE COMPETITION

1. The Accademia Musicale Europea establishes the 2021 Sacred Music International Competition reserved for opera singers of all nationalities and all vocal registers who - at the date of the Competition - have not turned 36 years old. The 2021 Sacred Music International Competition is an integral part of the cultural project "Let's Sing Oratorio Music!" dedicated to spreading the musical genre of the Oratory among European kids, winner of the Creative Europe Call and co-financed by the Creative Europe Program of the European Commission.

2. The 2021 International Sacred Music Competition 2021 will take place in the semifinal and final phases in Rome from 15 to 18 September 2021. Due to the health emergency, the elimination phase will take place with an online procedure by sending a video as specified in art. 8. The Semifinals will be held in the Church of S. Maria dei Miracoli - Piazza del Popolo, Rome and will be streamed via MARIA TV. The Final, in the form of a Gala Concert, will take place on 18 September at 20:30, at the Basilica SS. XII Apostoli and will be broadcast by TELEPACE worldwide. These phases of the competition will be open to the public ONLY if allowed by the health directives of the Italian government.

3. The 2021 edition is dedicated to the selection of the double solo cast for the staging of the show "A Promised Land" based on arias and choruses taken from Handel's oratorios mainly from "Messiah" and "Israel in Egypt".

The prize roles of the 2021 Sacred Music International Competition are:

2 Sopranos or Sopranoists

2 Mezzo-sopranos, Altos or Countertenors

2 Tenors

2 Baritone, Bass-Baritone or Bass

The shows will be held in 2022 (unless new health emergencies)

in Opava (Czech Rep.) at the Slezské Dvadlo Opava Theater in Karditsa (Greece) during the International Meeting Choir or the Karditsa Festival in Bacau (Romania) with the Philharmonic "Mihai Jora" in Cosenza (Italy) at the Rendano Theater and possibly in other cities.

The final dates will be published on the websites www.concorsomusicasacra.com and www.letssing.eu.

- The Competition will be divided into three rounds: Qualifying round, Semi-final and Final in the form of a Gala Concert. The winners and eventually the finalists chosen for the roles - to be eligible for the prize - are required to participate in the shows and workshops of "Let's Sing Oratorio Music!", an integral part of the prizes to be held in Greece, Italy, the Czech Republic, and Romania in 2022.
- Competitors who will certify that they are winners of Principal Prizes in International Opera Singing Competitions in Italy or abroad, will be directly admitted to the Semifinal in Rome but, upon registration, they must in any case present a program of 5 arias of Sacred Music as specified in art. 6. Those admitted directly to the Semifinal as winners of other International Opera Competitions must send all the documentation and the full registration fee.
- Each competitor must present 5 sacred music arias of free choice taken from the repertoire of sacred music (Masses, Oratorios, Stabat, Requiem, traditional songs etc.). It is not compulsory to perform the pieces by heart except in the Final-Gala Concert.
- The audition order of the competitors will be alphabetical for the Semifinals (using the beginning of the first surname as it appears on passports or identity cards in case of multiple surnames); agreed by the Jury for the Final - Gala

Concert. Competitors must show an identity document before the first performance and leave two copies of each piece presented for possible consultations by the Jury.

Qualifying round

8. To participate in the QUALIFYING ROUND, the candidate must send his / her own VIDEO containing 1 aria of sacred music of his choice (in MP4 format) or YouTube link by 30 June 2021. The sending must be done by inserting in the registration form that opens on the page concorsomusicasacra.com/registration by inserting the WeTransfer Link in the appropriate space (it is generated after the video has been uploaded) or the link of the YouTube video, if it is present on the web.

The evaluation will be carried out by the Jury composed of the Artistic Director of the Sacred Music International Competition and the Managers of each Partner of "Let's Sing Oratorio Music!". The singers who have had the favorable vote of the majority of the Jury will be admitted to the Semifinal in Rome.

By 15 July 2021, the Competition secretariat will communicate the names of the candidates who have passed the preliminary phase by sending an email to each of them.

Those admitted to the Semifinal of the Competition must complete the registration by sending the remaining participation fee by 10 August 2021 and the final list of the pieces they will present in Rome, under penalty of exclusion from the Competition.

Semifinal of the Competition

9. Competitors promoted to the Semifinal will sing 2 arias chosen by the Jury from among those proposed by the candidate. They will be informed of this choice by the Maestro Collaborator during the musical rehearsal.

10. The Semifinal dedicated to the competitors directly admitted to the Semifinal will provide for the execution of max. 3 arias among those proposed: the first of their choice, the other two chosen by the Jury and communicated to the singers by the Maestro Collaborator during the musical rehearsal.

11. At the end of the two Semi-final sessions, the Jury - always with a majority voting system - will communicate the list of finalists.

Final in the form of Gala Concert

12. For the final round, in the form of a Gala Concert, the finalists will have to sing an aria chosen by the Jury with an unquestionable decision from all 5 pieces presented. At the end of the Final, the Jury will meet to vote and the winners of the Sacred Music International Competition 2021 will be proclaimed with the awards given by the Honorary Committee.

The Jury will be able to decide up to 2 winners for each role for a total of 8 winners.

The Jury and the voting systems

13. The Jury composed of the representatives of the Partners of "Let's Sing Oratorio Music!" project and of Managers, and / or Directors chosen from the most prestigious European Institutions, will examine the singers to be selected in the Final and decide on the winners of the Sacred Music International Competition 2021.

14. The Jury will be composed of a maximum of 7 Jurors. The members of the Jury will be published on the official website of the Competition www.concorsomusicasacra.com.

15. The Jury's decision will be final, unquestionable and unappealable. The Jury may: shorten the duration of the Competitor's performances and / or request a supplementary one; not to award prizes if no candidate is deemed worthy. Specifically in the Semifinal round, which involves the performance of several pieces, the Jury may decide to listen to additional pieces or to interrupt the performance of a piece at any time without this in any way prejudicing the judgment of the candidates.

16. The voting for the Qualifying round and Semifinal rounds will take place by means of a majority of favorable opinions; in the event of a tie, the vote of the President of the Jury will be worth double.

17. The vote of the final will take place by means of a sum attributed by the votes of the jurors - from 1 to 6, providing as an intermediate between one vote and the other 0.50 with the exclusion of other decimals - excluding the highest and the lowest votes. The sum will be divided by the number of valid votes (the total of votes less the two automatically excluded, and possibly the votes of abstentions pursuant to Article 16). If several jurors express the same vote, only the higher and the lower will be subtracted from the final score.

18. When a candidate has had educational and / or work relationships in the last two years with a member of the jury, the latter will abstain from voting and this will be explicitly mentioned in the minutes of the Competition. In this case, in the Final the votes will be divided by the number of jurors with the right to vote subject to the provisions of art. 17.

19. At the end of the preliminary and semifinal phases, no technical judgments will be communicated on the singers not admitted to the following phases.

The prizes

20. The prizes of the Sacred Music International Competition 2021 consist of scholarships for a total of € 10,000.00, free workshops, trophies, travel and accommodation expenses reimbursement for all the activities and shows of "Let's Sing Oratorio Music!" offered by the Partners of the European project and will be assigned up to a maximum of 8 singers (2 for each role) chosen by the Jury during the Competition in Rome.

The scholarships are offered by the partners of the Let's Sing Oratorio Music project to this extent:

- Slezské Dvadlo Opava (CZ) offers up to a maximum of 8 scholarships of € 500 each for a total of € 4.000, 2 workshops lasting 6 days each or a single one lasting 12 days at the Theater, refund travel expenses up to a maximum of € 200 for return flights and / or trains for each planned activity in Opava and accommodation for the duration of each educational or artistic commitment in Opava.

- Panhellenic Federation of Choirs and Choir Directors offers 4 scholarships of € 500 each for a total of € 2.000, reimbursement of travel expenses up to a maximum of € 150 for return flights and / or trains and accommodation for the duration of the concerts in Karditsa during the International Meeting Choir.

- Philharmonic Mihai Jora of Bacau offers 4 scholarships of € 500 each for a total of € 2.000, reimbursement of travel expenses up to a maximum of € 150 for return flights and / or trains and accommodation for the duration of the artistic activity in Bacau.

- Accademia Musicale Europea offers 4 scholarships of € 500 each for a total of € 2.000, a free workshop lasting up to 1 week, reimbursement of travel expenses up to a maximum of € 150 for return flights and / or trains and accommodation for the duration of the artistic activity in Italy.

- Please note: the actual payment of the scholarships will be carried out by each Partner and is subject to participation in the workshops and concerts for "Let's Sing Oratorio Music!" project. Participation in the planned workshops will not entail any costs. The Organization, however, has the option of deciding, at its sole discretion, not to activate them totally or partially, or not to request participation from the winners themselves, without anything else being due. In this case, the sums due to the winners will be paid without any obligation other than free participation in the prize concerts in the maximum number established.

General Standards

23. Competition organization will provide one or more piano repetiteur to accompany the singers. For each live round of the Competition, each singer will have right to rehearse with the pianist according to the calendar published on the Website and / or communicated directly to the candidate. The competitors have the right to bring a piano repetiteur at their own expense. In this case the accompanist will be considered to agree in full to the prescriptions of the art. 25 and will have to sign the authorization. The Jury reserves the right to exclude external accompanists from the Final - Gala Concert without this entailing any right or compensation.
24. To be entitled to receive the scholarship, the prize winners will have to guarantee and confirm their participation in the "Let's Sing Oratorio Music" activities (concerts, shows and workshops). These concerts are fully part of the prizes and participation does not involve further payment but will be entitled to reimbursement of travel and accommodation expenses as better specified in the Prizes section of the present rules. Competition finalists and/or Singers given a special mention by the Jury may be asked to take part in the scheduled prize concerts.
25. Any rounds of 2021 Sacred Music International Competition and of the related "Let's Sing Oratorio Music" prize activities as concerts, shows and workshops can be recorded with any phonographic and video system and broadcasted by radio, television channels, web sites, and any other kind of media, known or not known. The competitors must issue a relevant authorization to the organization of the Competition (a format of it will be published on the official website of the Competition). Failure to sign the above mentioned authorization
